

MENOPAUSAL WOMEN 2018 - a quantitative study

Summary of data from Sweden

Background

- The survey has been conducted among Swedish women aged 50-65 years old.
- The survey is completed in June/July 2018 via the Internet.
- 307 Swedish women answered the survey.

Sweden

Q1: Are you in the menopause?

Base (307)

Q2: In connection with the menopause, discomfort such as dryness in the vagina can occur. This manifest itself as itching and burning, bleeding, pain during sexual intercourse, urinary tract infections or incontinence. Is this something you have experienced in relation to the menopause?

Base (307)

Q3: Were you aware that dryness in the vagina could occur in relation to the menopause?

Base (307)

Q4: Have you consulted a doctor due to dryness in the vagina?

Base (307)

Q5: Have you talked with others, about the discomfort you experience in relation to dryness in the vagina? (You may tick off more than one)

Base (307)

Q6: Dryness affects many women negatively. Which of the below discomforts, if any, have you experienced? (You may tick off more than one)

Base (307)

Q7: What influence does dryness in the vagina have on your quality of life?

Base: Experience discomfort in the abdomen (264)

Q8: Are you aware that dryness in the vagina can be treated?

Base (307)

Q9: Was the proportion of hormones something you took into consideration, when you selected or deselected treatment?

Base: Aware that vaginal dryness can be treated (241)

Q10: Where do you typically seek information about menopause and dryness in the vagina? (You may tick off more than one)

Base (307)